RE: Ranch Manager

Dear Hiring Manager,

When we heard about your opening for a Ranch Manager, we knew that this was our chance to work for an incredible individuals. We are confident that, with our industry knowledge and experience, we can be a strong member of your team. Our emotional intelligence has allowed us to become well rounded and knowledgeable stewards of the land and animals that we love.

In our all of our previous ranch manager positions we have handled tasks that match all of what you outlined in your job ad. With our ability to learn, we know we can quickly close any knowledge gaps to become an asset to your team.

The two of us have worked together for the past 5 years and make an incredible team. It allows us to double our daily tasks and use each others knowledge and strengths to tackle tough situations. We feel that together we can not only manage the current situation but make improvements and growth strategies for your organization.

We have effective communication skills and the motivation to take on challenging work. We are also skilled at monitoring pasture land, land management and have extensive equine backgrounds. I am confident that we have the drive, knowledge and experience you need. We hope that you will take the time to meet with us. We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Nate and Heather Qualls
